
PERFORMER BIOGRAPHY

Gilly Slot

Gilly Slot was born in Bedfordshire and started having piano lessons at the age of six. She continued her piano studies with Martin Hughes at Surrey University where she read music.

She currently teaches the piano at St. Swithun's School in Winchester and West Hill Park School in Titchfield.

Gilly is the accompanist for the Compton and Shawford Festival Choir and the Winchester City Festival Choir, and accompanies for local concerts, festivals and examinations. She plays the flute in the chamber group Fusion, and also plays the classical guitar and the viola. In addition to her musical activities, she also enjoys cycling with the Southampton CTC and swims a mile each day.
