

PERFORMER BIOGRAPHY

Mark and Fiona Zarb-Adami

Mark and Fiona Zarb-Adami met on a piano course at Jackdaws, Somerset in March 2018. They became engaged the following Spring and moved into the beautiful village of Sparsholt later that summer. They married in St Stephen's in July 2020. After completing work on the house and re-designing the garden, they created Sparsholt Music in 2021 to bring music to the village and raise funds for many worthy causes in Sparsholt.

Born in London to Maltese parents, Mark attended the junior department of the Royal College of Music studying oboe and piano. He read Physics and Computer Science at Clare College Cambridge where he also took an active part in musical activities. In 2019 Mark passed his FRSM diploma on the piano with distinction. He currently works as a lead programmer for Sony.

Mark enjoys playing chess and walking his dog Phoebe around the village, whilst picking up litter! He has recently started learning the organ and is enjoying playing in local church services.

Fiona's family moved from London to Hove when she was 17. Throughout her childhood she loved the annual music holidays known as 'Summer Music'. She has taught the piano at schools and privately. Fiona passed her LTCL singing diploma in 2018. She is enjoying taking part in netball, football and short tennis.

Mark and Fiona will be taking part in the Winchester Cathedral lunchtime concert series on Tuesday July 19th from 1.15pm - 1.45pm. The programme includes piano solos by Scriabin and Earl Wild and songs by Handel, Fauré, Rachmaninoff and Novello.

SPARSHOLT
• MUSIC •