Tom Jesty

Tom grew up in Winchester and attended the Pilgrims' school, where he sang as a 'quirister' in the Winchester College Chapel Choir. As a teenager, Tom developed a passion for piano playing under the tutelage of Nick Salwey. Tom has recently completed a masters course in accompaniment at the Guildhall in London, and works as a freelance accompanist, as well as directing music at St Mary's church Islington. When not playing the piano, Tom enjoys racquet sports and hiking.

Tom will be performing with violinist Vanessa White in a Winchester Cathedral Lunchtime concert at 1:15pm on 24 October.
