

PERFORMER BIOGRAPHY

Nick Willsher

South Coast saxophonist and composer Nick Willsher is now based in London, where he studied at the Purcell School of Music, Royal College and the Royal Academy of Music.

Adept on all of the saxophones, Nick is comfortable in a variety of musical settings; from session work, jazz ensembles, big bands and theatre shows, to playing at weddings and corporate functions.

Nick received an honourable mention from Julian Joseph and Wynton Marsalis at the Essentially Ellington youth project at the Barbican and reached the semi-finals of BBC's Young Jazz Musician of the Year.

Recently he has enjoyed collaborating with a number of up and coming London artists across an array of genres and looks forward to performing and releasing more of his own material. His hobbies include basketball and rock-climbing.

